America's JobCenter of California℠

The America's Job Center of California (AJCC) network offers businesses convenient access to workforce development services. Staff work one-on-one with employers to help plan ways to build and train your workforce or refer you to no-cost/low-cost consulting services.

For more employer services information visit www.VCHSA.org/AJCC, call (805) 204-5186 or email hsa-employment-srvcs-info@ventura.org.

The Workforce Development Board administers federal funds that help to support AJCC and other job seeker, youth, and employer programs and services in Ventura County.

Rapid Response

In our increasingly globalized and highly competitive economy, businesses are always changing. Companies are constantly growing or shrinking or may be facing barriers that keep them from growing. When there is a need for workforce reduction because of company restructuring, closure, or relocation, Rapid Response services are available, in English and Spanish, at no cost to employers or workers.

Company Benefits

Rapid Response teams will work with your company to quickly maximize public and private resources to minimize the disruptions that are associated with the workforce reduction process. Business services can include:

- Confidential workforce transition consultation
- Coordinated service delivery with other business support resources
- Transition workshops for dislocated workers
- Continued productivity and better worker morale during the transition

Employee Advantages

Re-employment services are offered to impacted workers through federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) funding. Rapid Response teams meet with affected workers (on-site or off-site) before the layoff to provide immediate access to:

- Career counseling and job search assistance
- Information on education and training opportunities
- Unemployment Insurance eligibility and application steps
- America's Job Center of California services, resources, and support

Layoff Aversion

The Rapid Response program also includes services to help businesses avoid layoff and closures and assist with recovery. Referrals are provided for no-fee/low-fee, one-on-one consulting with management professionals who support companies of all sizes facing challenges including:

- Strategic planning and growth
- Finances and cash flow
- Management and marketing
- Incumbent worker training

Equal Opportunity Employer/Program/Service. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. TDD/TTY Inquiries call the California Relay Service 711 or 800-735-2922.
