

Council Member Mike Judge

Council Member Mike Judge was elected to the City Council in November 2010.

Council Member Judge has been employed by the Los Angeles Police Department for 20 years, spending the majority of his career in the northwest San Fernando Valley area. He served honorably in the United States Army from 1981 to 1985 and the California Army National Guard from 1985 to 1996.

Prior to his election, Council Member Judge served as a member of Simi Valley Neighborhood Council Executive Board No. 3, an advisory body to the City Council on development projects, resident concerns, and other matters on which the City Council desires input.

Council Member Judge serves on a number of City committees, including the Affordable Housing Subcommittee, the E-Government Committee, the Farmers Insurance Building Red Team, the Landscape Guidelines and Standards Review Committee, Simi Valley Arts Commission, the Simi Valley Council on Aging, the Simi Valley Community Task Force on Heroin Prevention, the Sustainable Simi Valley Committee, and the Task Force on Homelessness, and currently serves as the President Pro Tem of the Simi Valley Library Board of Trustees. Council Member Judge is also a liaison to the Americans with Disabilities Paratransit Advisory Committee, Neighborhood Councils, and Youth Council, and is the City Council's representative to the League of California Cities Channel Counties Division and the Association of Ventura County Cities and is the alternate representative to the Ventura Council of Governments.

Born in Encino, Council Member Judge came to Simi Valley as an infant and has called Simi Valley home ever since. His family's roots in the community predate the City's incorporation, going back to the 1950's when his grandparents settled here. Council Member Judge and his wife Sarit have three children.
