

Mayor Pro Tem Dee Dee Cavanaugh

Mayor Pro Tem Dee Dee Cavanaugh was elected to the City Council in November 2016.

Prior to her election, Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh served as a member of the Board of Directors for Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District (March 2010 through November 2016), and served as a member of both the Small Business Advisory Committee and the Tree Advisory Committee.

Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh works for Pacific Western Bank, a subsidiary of PacWest Bancorp, where she is a Vice President, Operations Administrator, overseeing branch operations for the Central Coast South Region. Her responsibilities include the Goleta and Santa Barbara area, all of Ventura County as well as the Northridge area. Prior to joining Pacific Western Bank, Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh most recently worked for First California Bank as a regional and branch manager in their Simi Valley Office. Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh has worked in the banking industry since 1984, and has been exposed to bank deregulation, FDIC closures, mergers and acquisitions as well as the ever changing world of technology in the financial industry.

Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh was the first woman president in the history of the Rotary Club of Simi Valley in 2000-2001 and is a 20 year member. She served as president of the Simi Valley Hospital Foundation in 2014-2015 and currently is a member of the hospital Governing Board. Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh is also a past president and current board member of the Simi Valley Police Foundation.

Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh's community involvement also includes past service on the boards of Simi Valley Girls Softball and the Boys and Girls Club of Simi Valley. She is a Simi Valley CERT graduate as well as a graduate of the Chamber of Commerce Leadership Simi Valley Class of 2005.

Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh has been honored as the 2008 Chamber of Commerce Person of the Year; the 2010 Woman of Distinction Award by the Gold Coast Girl Scout Council and the 2015 Simi Valley Humanitarian Award.

Mayor Pro Tem Cavanaugh grew up in Simi Valley and is a 1977 graduate of Royal High School. She raised her daughter, Anna, here in Simi Valley and is fortunate to have her mother and sisters continue to reside here.
