

Tips for Responding to Panhandlers

1. Politely say “No” or “Sorry” and continue on your way.
2. Help people in need by donating to any of the organizations listed in this pamphlet.
3. Aggressive panhandling is illegal. If you feel threatened, call 911.
4. For information on other ways you can help those in need, visit:

Deep down, we all want to help.

*The question is,
“How can I give in a way
that will truly help?”*

*Know before you give.
Support solutions,
not panhandling.*

Say "No" to Panhandlers say "Yes" to Giving

The Simi Valley Task Force on Homelessness encourages you to make your donations count by giving to organizations that assist homeless persons.

"Statistics show that most panhandlers are not homeless, and most homeless do not panhandle. For some, panhandling is a career...and a lucrative one."
